However, Adobe does offer the Adobe Creative Cloud for only US$19.99/yr. You can get the full bundle of apps and services, including access to the latest software. If you don't want to upgrade, you can pay the yearly fee and use the previous Adobe tools instead. In addition, updates to the previous tools may take up to two weeks or longer to release, if you do not have Creative Cloud. Read the Adobe Creative Cloud 2017 & 2018 terms of use for additional details about subscriptions, and ensure you follow the instructions provided by Adobe regarding obtaining a license key to activate the new CC 2018 software. You can also check out the tutorial on setting up CC 2017 . One of the most unusual things about the new CC 2018 software is that it will not have a link to the Adobe Store or to the Mac App Store. The download/app will be offered right in the Creative Cloud desktop app if you wish to use it that way, and it is listed in the Adobe Apps category. In addition, the CC 2018 tools will be available for Mac OS and Windows CC2017 macOS members can install these tools in a single CC app, without downloading an installer or doing an app-store check-in. The new Photoshop CC 2018 will also become available for Mac OS and Windows through the Adobe Store when the new release is available. Before you can use these full downloads, you will need to upgrade your Adobe creative apps to 2018. Once the upgrade is complete you can use the new CC 2018 app instantly. After that you can upgrade Photoshop to the beta version (you can use the current version) or install the Photoshop CC 2018 Release Candidate. At this time you need to use the CC2018 tool to install Photoshop. You can use the USB drive, DVD media or an online installer.
